The Nomination of W. G. Ritch as Secretary of the Territory of New Mexico Confirmed by the Senate.

Special to the Gazette: San Francisco, Cal., June 11.—A Tucson dispatch says a mass meeting was held by citizens of Grant county, New Mexico, on Monday at Silver City, five hundred prominent persons being present. Resolutions severely censuring General Hatch and his command were unanimously passed, demanding his removal, and the appointment of the recent commander, Captain Parker, chief of the scouts of the San Carlos reservation, and Capt. Madden enlorged for services in the field. The resolutions are to be sent to the President of the United States, Commanding General of the army, Department commander, and Governor of New Mexico, and copies will be sent to the Eastern and Pacific press.

SENATE. McDonald supported the resolution unseating Kelllogg.

HOUSE.

The deputy marshals' bill was considered to-day. Kell characterized it as a sham intended to annul and not improve the election laws.

The Senate amendments to the sundry civil bill were not concurred in and the conference appointed Hawley who arraigned the democrats for failing to pass any needful measures and predicted their defeat in the coming election.

Cox charged that Garfield had suppressed all attempts to reform the tariff.

Carlisle had Garfield's remarks on free trade read in which Garfield said he favored the protection which leads to ultimate free trade. Carlisle asked Kelly if he favored that view.

He said he had repeatedly declared that the only road to free trade.

The Republicans applauded frequently during this speech and Robinson asked for more reading of Garfield's good speeches.

Williams made a plea for the protection of the ballot by whatever means necessary.

Humphrey thought the pending bill should be entitled a bill to bring into use free institutions.

White moved to amend by striking out the proposition requiring deputy marshals to be selected equally from different political parties. Other amendments were offered but the previous question was seconded leaving Harris an hour to close. He advocated the bill. It did not interfere with the duties of deputy marshals in any way and did not take away the power to appoint deputies for election purposes because they have no such power now. Harris had read by the clerk Garfield's remarks on this bill and reproached Republicans with now refusing to follow his great leader.

NAVY.

Washington, D. C. June 11.—The representative, Whitman, chairman of the committee, on naval affairs has submitted to the house a written report in advocacy of adoption of the resolution recently reported by him, in which he proposes to authorize a subcommittee of three or five members of this committee to make a trip to Mare Island during recess at the government expense, and there to examine in connection with a board of competent naval officers, whether bars of sand and mud &c., are being found, which have impaired, or may impair the usefulness of the navy yard; and whether such formation or deposits can be permanently prevented. The report says: "It will be seen by reference to a letter from the secretary of the navy in response to a house resolution of inquiry, of last January, that the usefulness of said navy yards in the future very seriously threatened by the formation of bars and deposits of sand and mud and gravel in the navy or near Mare Island. These formations are described by some to be orificial causes; by other, to be natural. Again, it is claimed by some that this formation may be easily arrested. By others that unless very comprehensive and costly, as well as speedy precautions are applied, it cannot be done. The Secretary in a letter, and also remarks: "With regard to the question, as to whether such deposits can be prevented, I beg leave to say that it is a difficult question to answer, and one which cannot be answered without a careful and thorough examination of the premises by a board composed of the most capable engineers of the country." He further says, "It is a question of vast magnitude, and one that is invaluable to the interests of the largest and most important interests of the country, the great mining interests of the West." The committee on naval affairs appreciate it, and have reported a bill desecrating an examination of the question in its more general bearings, and of its direct influence on the navy yard; and hence, your committee have in view special interests under their charge. If this question is brought before them by reference of the aforesaid document, the House confines them to the direct question of the effect of the alleged formation of sand bars in the bay, or near Mare Island navy yard. The government has already expended a large sum of money on this navy yard, in order to make it a military yard such as the interests of the United States demand. It will require a large sum of money, and the total cost will exceed $12,010,000.

Chicago June 11.—About one o'clock this afternoon the greenbackers began presenting names of candidates for the nomination of president. The first ballot was taken at four this afternoon with the following result: Weaver, 100; Butler, 95; Allis, 41; Campbell, 21.

In the first formal ballot most votes were transferred to Weaver, and before the close of roll call, he having received over 500 votes, there was a general stampede to him. The chair announced Gen. James B. Weaver, of Iowa, as the nominee of the greenback labor party for president, on the first ballot.

For vice president there were only 2 nominees: A. L. West, of Mississippi and B. J. Chambers, of Texas.

West received 300 and Chambers, 414. He was declared the nominee of the convention. The socialists insisted on their resolutions regarding the rights of man to the soil. It was adopted. The convention was very turbulent throughout the night and adjourned at 6:45 this forenoon.

SEYMOUR.

New York, June 10.—Governor Seymour this forenoon was shown a dispatch from Syracuse, N. Y., which was published in the Syracuse Courier to-day that he would urge his nomination and gave assurances that he would not decline.

The Observer this morning publishes the dispatch and adds the following: "There is no truth in the assertions contained in the foregoing dispatch that Seymour has changed or modified his position; and he says now, as he said all the time, that he is not, and cannot become a candidate; and could not accept a nomination even if it was tendered him. He deems it unwise for any one to enter any public office, when his health is unequal to the performance of duties. He alone can judge of this, and cannot yield his decision to the opinions of others. He has never anticipated the possibility of his nomination and has always regarded the mention of his name as one of the candidates which always mark political speculations before a meeting of a convention. In reply to any complimentary mention he has distinctly and clearly stated it to be his purpose to withdraw from any part in any public affairs; although he felt an interest in the party to which he was attached. In stating what he says, we only report his words since the appearance of the above in the newspapers, and the words meet his views and not our own."

Berlin, June 11.—The state supplementary conference at Athens will have to deal in all with six proposals for the readjustment of the Greek frontier but a great number of these proposals will be promptly disposed of if France and England have agreed to stand up for the session of the territory recommended as a minimum of what will be granted by Turkey to Greece. Turkey is in sympathy and it is not believed Austria and Russia will antagonize the powers whose vote are decisive.

INDIAN NEWS.

Washington, D. C. June 11.—The conference committee on the Indian bill agreed to report a motion directing the Secretary of the Interior to locate the Uncompagres and southern Utah on agricultural lands in Colorado provided sufficient agricultural lands can be obtained within its limits, the present Ute reservation in Colorado to accommodate them in the event of the secretary failing to find agricultural lands in Colorado. He is directed by the amendment to locate those unprovided for in Colorado upon unoccupied agricultural lands in New Mexico in the vicinity of the La Plata River or in Utah in the limit of the present reservation.

At one o'clock the burning oil overflowed and ran down the hill side consuming everything in its course. The Octave Refining and Acme Oil Works, one of the largest in the world are now burning. Oil run into Oil Creek and threatened the destruction of a large amount of property in the city. Persons residing in the vicinity have without their house goods gone to places of safety. At four o'clock the fire was still increasing, having reached Franklin and Washington streets, and threatened destruction of the railroad bridge. The fire department from Oil City are in the city in answer to a telegram from the Mayor for aid.

Las Vegas, N. M. June 11 '80.

T. F. Conway,

Chairman Democratic Committee; Santa Fe, N. M. The meeting is called for Saturday evening to elect delegates to the Cincinnati convention. Does your committee consisting of yourself, A. Joseph, E. Vigil and Gilbert sleeve approve of our action. Answer at once by telegraph. ROBERT CULLEN.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 11.

To Robert Cullen,

Felipe Chavez and Waldo, with Gildersleeve and Anthony Joseph as alternates have been selected by the committee. T. F. Conway, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee.

Prof. Silliman, of Yale college, says New Mexico abounds with hidden wealth. Yes, it is too much hidden, that's what the matter.—EX.

—The GAZETTE is the spiciest paper published in West Las Vegas.—Optic.

We can return the compliment to the Optic for the East side. A little mutual admiration.

—There are ten prisoners in the jail. Seven are Americans and three are Mexicans. There are five guards who take turns, four hours off and two hours on duty. Everything runs smooth at present.

—It is rumored that forty Apaches had flanked the troops and begun raiding in the vicinity of Caliente. Thirty of them were at the end of the D. & R. G. track yesterday. A Pueblo Indian called in to-day. He reported the Apaches undoubtedly on the war path. The settlers are well aroused.—Colorado Springs Gazette. They should more properly be Navajoes.

—Some one with capital would find a fine property in the Exchange Hotel in the plaza. It has splendid grounds and the best location in the town. It should however be re-built and remodeled. Whoever does buy it should receive substantial encouragement from the business men.

—Mr. W. Van Slooten, representing the N. O. Venture Mining and Locating company, of New Orleans, is in town. This company proposes to make investments in good mining property and Mr. Van Slooten is visiting the Territory for the purpose of learning what may be done here.

—There is a consignment of goods at the depot for the white Oaks mines. They came from Santa Fe. This is an effectual answer to the boasting of Santa Fe papers in reference to the good and practicable road from that city to White Oaks. It is more effective argument than a whole column of newspaper talk. It is conclusive that the practical route is from Las Vegas.

—Vivid lightning was visible in the eastern horizon last night.
